MISSION: The Tournament of Bands All Star Marching Ensemble provides a high level of entertainment and an exciting experience for all young performers representing participating Tournament schools. Members are afforded an opportunity to perform in a nationally televised event across the country in a large city background. The dedicated staff will have the chance to meet and develop a unique ensemble of young performers within a twenty-four hour time frame, bringing together the final performance at the Philadelphia Thanksgiving day parade. This is the ultimate challenge of preparation which offers each and every young performer the experience of a lifetime!
